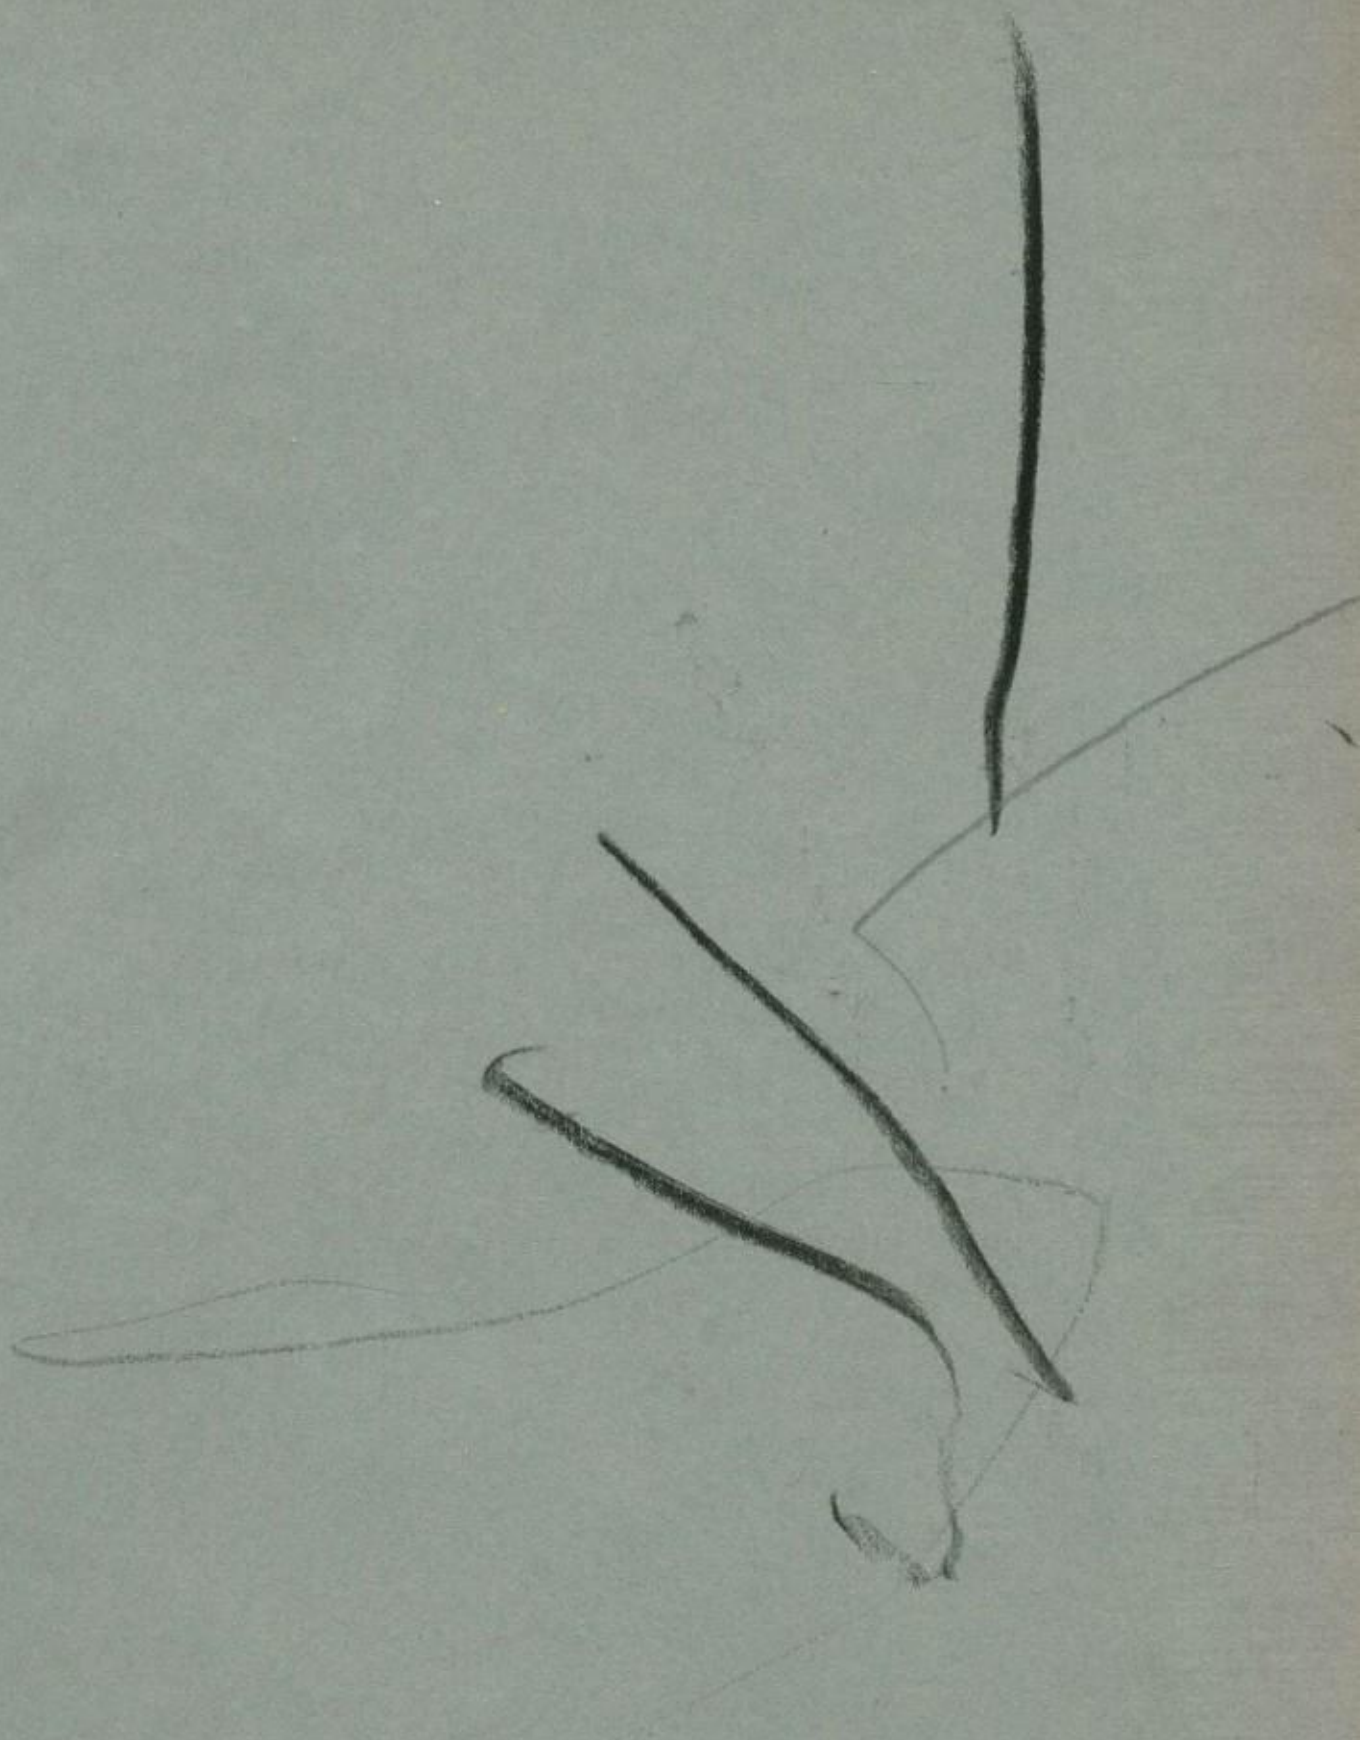
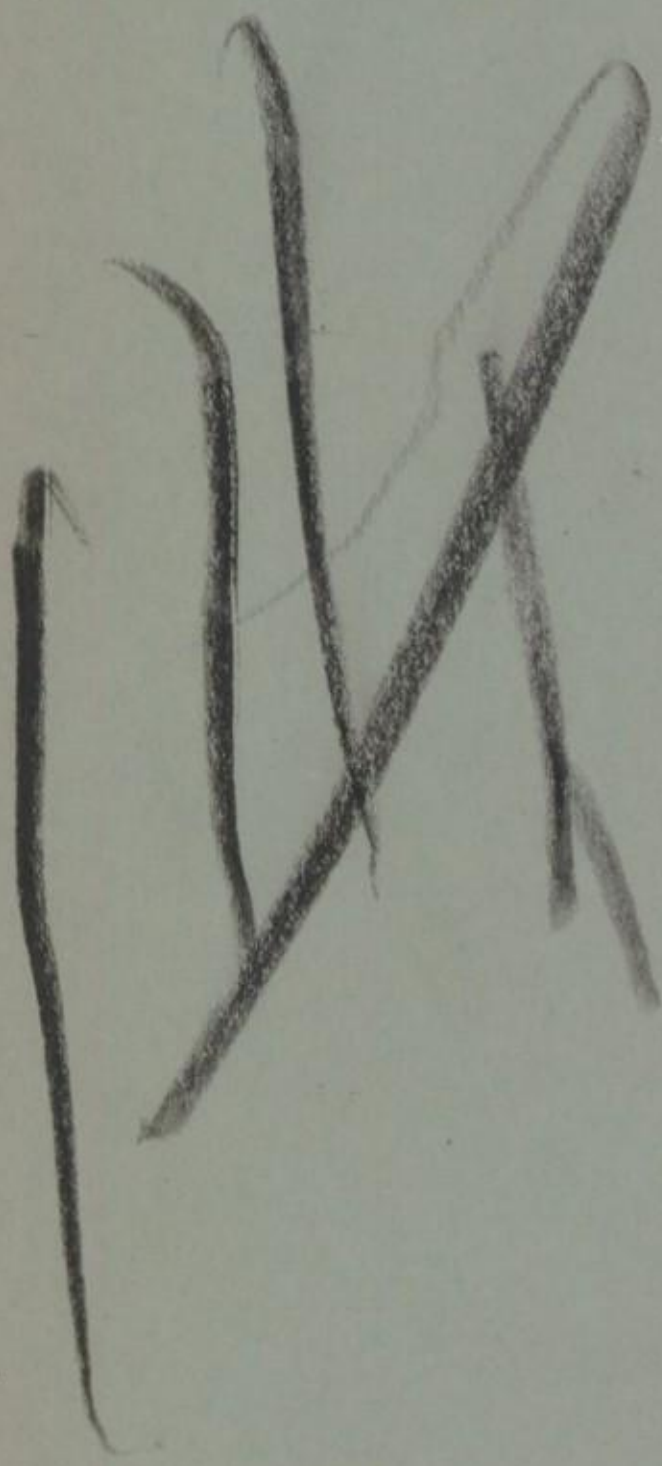
The Quaker

1944



Bessie Herrod
Newton Street
Orchard Park



In former years our annual was called "The Reflector." Because the name held no significance to our school and community, we changed it to THE QUAKER.

We feel this is a very appropriate title since Orchard Park was founded as a Quaker community.

Dedication

To Mr. Saul, the guiding influence behind all Senior classes, we, the Class of '44, wish to dedicate the product of our combined imaginations, THE QUAKER.

We have piled all our troubles as a class in his hands and individually have carried our personal grievances to him for help. In his classes we have learned a great deal more than history. To us he has pointed out the way in which we can become clear thinkers and good citizens. He has been a teacher of life showing us mutual tolerance, and we leave school knowing we are leaving behind us a real friend.

Quaker Staff

Junior Staff

The glory of our finished product, THE QUAKER, goes not only to the Senior staff this year, but to our staff of Juniors as well. We've pushed them around. We've told them what to do, how to do it, and when to get it done. We've taken them from much needed study halls to do our "dirty work" when they would much rather have been doing their own work. They undertook all sorts of jobs, from tending lower grades to typing yearbook copy. But we are sure that they have profited by it as much as we have.

Our editorial staff of Juniors has learned the fundamentals of editing a yearbook. They have observed the progress of this year's QUAKER from the earliest stages of its development to the final touches. They have learned costs of printing and engraving and will know how to plan their yearbook next year.

Our business staff of Juniors has learned the principles of financing a yearbook. With a knowledge of this year's work they will step into the business of next year's finances better able to solve problems which may come up.

This is our plan to maintain a continuous yearbook staff. From these Juniors our Senior staff will choose the editor and business manager for the 1945 QUAKER. Through this year's experience we hope their job will be made easier, and the class adviser will not have to train an entirely green staff each year.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1944, being of reasonable sound mind, do thus ordain and publish our last will and testament:

ARTICLE A: We, the Senior Class of 1944, do hereby bequeath to our library between $250 and $400 to be used for reference books, biographies, fiction, etc., of high school level. In doing so, we are following a precedent set by the Class of '43. We sincerely hope that other Senior classes will help in this way to establish a library of which Orchard Park High may well be proud.

We also leave the hope that when the members of our class return to Orchard Park School—for visits of course—they will find these books well worn and well used.

ARTICLE B: To the Freshmen, the struggling Class of '47, we bequeath our brains—they'll need 'em—and our virtually unquestioned ability to learn and advance. May they be the most snobbish Sophomores, the most tyrannical Juniors, the proudest Seniors.

ARTICLE C: To the Sophomores, the up and coming Class of '46, we do hereby bequeath our scintillating charm, our serenity and benevolence. We can only hope that they—even as ourselves—set an example for those to follow.

ARTICLE D: To the Juniors who will strive—of course—to fill our shoes, we herein bequeath our unexcelled talents in monetary matters and executive ability, and our exuberant class spirit. To them we also regretfully leave Mr. Saul.

ARTICLE E: To you all, dear schoolmates and teachers, we leave, first of all, memories; secondly, a pattern for success; and finally, we just leave!

CLASS PRIZES

The Senior class is fortunate in being able to announce the establishment of a number of scholarship prizes this year for the first time. They are available to the seniors, the juniors, the sophomores, and the freshmen, and are awarded on the basis of scholarship and citizenship.

The people to whom we are indebted for these awards are Dr. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. George Graham Smith, Mrs. George Graham Smith, Mr. C. C. Whelchel, the Parent-Teachers Association, and the school faculty. The awards are:

The Fred J. Galloway award, established by Mrs. Smith in memory of her father. This is to be granted annually to the most outstanding boy in the graduating class of Orchard Park High School. This award, consisting of a certificate plus $25 in cash is based upon scholarship, unusual qualities of character, leadership and prominence in school activities. The seniors themselves select five boys whom they consider most qualified to receive the award and then a committee composed of the principal and members of the faculty choose the winner from this group.

The Ellen D. Smith award, $25 in cash and a certificate, established by Mr. Smith in memory of his mother. This is to be granted to the most outstanding girl of the graduating class, the girl to be chosen in the same manner as for the Fred J. Galloway award.

Three prizes given by the school faculty are:

A prize of $10 to the freshman who at the end of the year is judged to have done the best work in general science.

A prize of $10 to the sophomore who at the end of the year is judged to have done the best work in world history.

A prize of $10 to the junior who at the end of the year is judged to have done the best work in English.

The Parent-Teacher's association is awarding $25.00 to the senior girl graduating with a homemaking diploma, who is judged to have done the best work in all three courses in that department.

Mr. Whelchel's award is $15.00 to the winner of a speaking contest.
